We also thank the choir for its music and all who gave floral offerings, especially Excelsior Court No. 14, Court of Calanthe. MRS. GERALDINE HARRIS. MRS. LUCY LANGLEY.

CENTENNIAL M. E. CHURCH.
It was an eager, listening crowd that heard the beautiful sermon delivered by the pastor, Rev. Davis Sunday morning after which four persons united themselves with the church. The choir also deserves mention for the splendid work it is doing under the direction of Prof. F. J. Work. Collections amounted to $33 for the day. It is just one year ago since our beloved mother Julia Hartwell left us. The Home Missionary held memorial services Thursday afternoon at 2429 Vine street.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Annie Epperson, who was called away five years ago today, Jan. 29, 1911.

Mother I miss you everywhere, Miss your advice, love and care. A faithful mother no kind and true, I always pray and think of you.

Your're not forgotten in my mind, To me you were so good and kind; How my heart is filled with pain, I hope some day we'll meet again. Sadly missed by her loving daughter, HATTIE M. JONES, 1106 Highland.

On last Wednesday morning from 11 to 2 a very beautiful luncheon and shower was given in honor of Mrs. Eva M. Smith by the D. D.'s, at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Perry. At the strain of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the curtains were drawn back and the guests entered the dining room. The shades were drawn and the pink globes reflected a soft glow upon the beautifully spread table and pink and white decorations of the room. A wedding bell hung from the chandelier and standing beneath was a miniature bride surrounded by nine bridesmaids, the whole representing the D. D.'s. After a three-course luncheon the prospective bride was presented with a handsome three-piece set of lingerie. The D. D.'s are:

Mrs. Howard M. Smith, Wm. McKnight, J. E. Perry, T. A. Jones, W. C. Mallory, J. E. Dibble, Sidney Johnson, Gideon Brown, J. F. Shannon and A. W. Fox.

At the evening services Mrs. Miles gave a lecture in this auditorium to a large audience.

WARD CHAPEL.

Last Sunday was a high day. Dr. J. F. McDonald preached at 11:00 a. m., and he gave us a good strong gospel sermon and the people enjoyed it. At 7:30 p. m. the evangelist, Mrs. Anna J. Wade, preached a very impressive sermon, her text being "He is of age, ask him, he will speak for himself." The church was well filled, four members being added to the church. Monday evening Mrs. Wade preached on "I put off my coat and how shall I put it on." We had a great meeting. Rev. W. C. Williams and several of his members were present and took a very active part in the meeting. All O. K., Brethren come again.
